Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend T. Newton Wise:

Eternal God, without whom life has no meaning or purpose, but with whom there is power for the present and hope for the future, refresh our faith that the burdens of life may never break our spirit. Renew our courage that life's dangers and disappointments may never intimidate our souls. Amid the tumult of these changing times, restore our confidence in thee. Grant us a strong serenity, a secure trust, and a quiet inner peace.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

The Journal of April 4 was corrected and approved.
